Editorial Review

Review

"One could hardly wish for a better study resource to show the five points' faithfulness to Scripture." --J. I. Packer

"Truly a classic—clear, concise, and warm in its presentation of historic Reformed theology. This latest edition is even better than the original." --R. C. Sproul

"Next to the doctrine of salvation, the sovereignty of God has, to me, been the most powerfully comforting truth. My thanks to P&R Publishing for issuing a new edition of this excellent book." --Joni Eareckson Tada

About the Author

David N. Steele (1926-1991) served as pastor of several Baptist churches in Arkansas until his retirement in 1978. In addition to the present work, he coauthored Romans: An Interpretive Outline. At the time of his death, Steele was working on a manuscript dealing with the terms "all" and "world" throughout the New Testament. His wife, Ruth, is also deceased.

Curtis C. Thomas served as pastor of Baptist churches in Arkansas. More recently, for fourteen years he was the executive pastor of The Bible Church of Little Rock, an independent Reformed congregation. He retired after having spent forty-four years in the ministry. Along with Mr. Steele, he coauthored Romans: An Interpretive Outline. He is also the author of Practical Wisdom for Pastors: Words of Encouragement and Counsel for a Lifetime of Ministry. He continues to write and is a frequent guest speaker in churches throughout central Arkansas and the surrounding area. He and his wife, Betty, have three grown sons and several grandchildren.

S. Lance Quinn is the pastor-teacher of The Bible Church of Little Rock. He received the M.Div. and Th.M. degrees from The Master's Seminary, and the Drs. degree from the Evangelische Theologische Faculteit in Leuven, Belgium. Prior to coming to The Bible Church of Little Rock, he served as manager of ministries at the Grace to You radio ministry, and for ten years was the senior associate pastor and personal assistant to John F. MacArthur at Grace Community Church in southern California.

In addition to his pastoral ministry, Quinn serves on several boards, including Grace to You, the Fellowship of Independent Reformed Evangelicals, and the National Association of Nouthetic Counselors. He has written many articles and has contributed chapters to various books,
