Fly Fishing Belize By Jim Klug

With images and text from photographer and fly fishing travel professional Jim Klug, this 268-page, coffee-table-style photo and text book "Fly Fishing Belize" provides an in-depth look at all the country has to offer anglers, travelers and modern-day adventurers. The large-format book includes a stunning collection of photographs shot throughout the country, information on Belize's numerous coastal fisheries, and historical writings and contributions from some of the biggest names in fishing. This book is a must-have for both saltwater flats fishermen and non-anglers who truly appreciate the scenic beauty of this Caribbean country. From a photography perspective, this book will speak to those who have fished Belize and those who plan to in the future. Photographs and Text by Jim Klug Foreword by Tom Bie of The Drake Magazine, illustrations and artwork by Ian Davis, and additional contributions by Steve Abel, Dr. Aaron Adams, George Anderson, Val Atkinson, Bruce Chard, Jeff Currier, Terry and Wendy Gunn, Mike Lawson, Lefty Kreh, Craig Mathews, Mike Michalak and Brian O'Keefe. "The photography in this book is more than outstanding. Its a true feast for the eyes, the mind and the imagination." - Brian O'Keefe, Catch Magazine "You can fish the entire world, but when all is said and done, few places deliver the challenges and opportunities that Belize has to offer. And nobody has ever grabbed the essence of why that is, better than Jim Klug has done in this book. It's an absolute artifact, unlike anything else." - Kirk Deeter, Editor-at-Large, Field & Stream Magazine
