Has this Caffarelli finally met his match? Millionaire playboy Raoul Caffarelli has always lived life in the fast lane. But when an accident confines him to a wheelchair--and to the care of a woman whose beauty taunts him--he's consumed with rage and frustration.

Used to difficult patients, physical therapist Lily Archer won't be cowed by Raoul's arrogance or distracted by his Adonis-like physique. Carrying her own scars from the past, Lily has vowed never to relinquish her power to a man again. Both underestimate the power of the shared passion between them. Their physical scars may heal, but some wounds run much deeper....

Editorial Review

Review

Milburne's sweet tale shows the healing power of love. Her narrative showcases the lavish vistas, and her couple meshes nicely and is aided by a cast of perfect co-stars.

From the Author

It would have been easy (buttotally unrealistic) to get Raoul out of the chair by the end of the book. He had an important lesson to learn and the only way he could learn it was by accepting his physical limitations. For those of you who want to know how his rehab went watch out for next month's Never Gamble With A Caffarelli where you will find out!

Lily has her own deeply personal issues, ones that a lot of young women (and increasingly young men) have to deal with. Her time with the brooding but utterly delicious Raoul helped her finally accept her past and move forward.

I hope you enjoy Never Underestimate A Caffarelli and find the theme of emotional healing I have explored a meaningful one.

About the Author

Melanie Milburne read her first Harlequin at age seventeen in between studying for her final exams. After completing a Masters Degree in Education she decided to write a novel in between settling down to do a PhD. She became so hooked on writing romance the PhD was shelved and soon after she was signed on to the London office of Harlequin Mills and Boon line, becoming the first not previously published Australian author to be contracted for the Presents line in over a decade.
