Raine Falling (Hells Saints Motorcycle Club) By Paula Marinaro

After a lifetime of uncertainty, Raine Winston shouldn't be fazed by anything anymore. But she's terrified. Terrified that her wayward sister, Claire, has gotten into debt dangerously over her head. Terrified that a muscle-clad biker named Diego doesn't want payment with money—he wants much more. And terrified of the dizzying desire she feels whenever Diego touches her...

Diego Montsalto spends his days raising hell and his nights in the arms of fast, easy women. Tough, tattooed, and used to taking what he wants, he refuses to get emotionally invested in anyone. But he can't stop thinking about Raine's sweet smell, striking blue eyes, and quiet determination. She may have the spirit of a warrior, but she needs someone to guide and protect her.

When Raine has no choice but to go on the run, she falls straight into the Hells Saints' mayhem-filled world...and into Diego's strong arms. But in a life filled with hard choices, raw lust, and blood-soaked violence, is there room for loyalty...or love?

Revised edition: Previously published as Game Changer, this edition of Raine Falling includes editorial revisions.

Editorial Review

From the Author

I am proud to present this new professionally edited Montlake edition of my debut novel, Raine Falling (previously titled Game Changer). I just wanted to take a moment to thank you all for your support and encouragement. I have learned so much from your reviews, emails, and comments! I'm currently working on the next book, Claire and Reno's story, which will be published early 2015. This has been a very exciting journey and one I am thrilled to share with all of you.

About the Author

Paula Marinaro was born and raised on Boston's North Shore. She currently lives with her husband, Pasquale, in the Berkshires of Western Massachusetts. She is the mother of Jake and Leah, the stepmom of Michelle, Sara, and Matt, and "Yiayia" to Emma. Paula enjoys creating worlds and stories for others to enjoy.
