Speech & Debate - Acting Edition By Stephen Karam

"A triumph...hilarious, cliché-free, and immensely entertaining...Stephen Karam's dark comedy seems to be about a frumpy girl, a nerdy guy and an openly gay guy who band together to disclose the truth about a teacher who preys on his male students. But that topical plot is almost window dressing. The play's real accomplishment is its picture of the borderland between late adolescence and adulthood, where grown-up ideas and ambition coexist with childish will and bravado." --NY Times

"...savvy comedy...bristling with vitality, wicked humor, terrific dialogue and a direct pipeline into the zeitgeist of contemporary youth...Karam has a keen ear for how teens talk, move and think, how they view each other and the adult world...and uses both the advantages and perils of cyberspace to make amusing, original points..." --Variety

"A strong, rangy play...beautifully nails the indirection and crossed-wire communication of teenagers bubbling over with contradictory needs and insecurities." --NY Newsday
