Editorial Review

From the Author

The Celebrity Supernatural Series came about when I tried to write a holiday newsletter one Christmas for my friends. As much as I tried to craft a chatty and factual report of the year just passed, I couldn't help making up stuff about real people. And so, finally, in desperation of ever getting the thing out before my youngest made me a grandmother, I decided to abandon all pretense of writing non-fiction, and do what I do best...write stories. I sent it around and everyone liked it so much, I submitted it to New Witch Magazine. Its first printing was the 2005 Beltane issue. When my friend and publisher Patrice Fitzgerald approached me about making it available in e-format, I jumped at the chance, and a whole new world of possibilities opened up...
