Love in the Trap By Lucinda John

Mia and Romeo was both born into poverty. Romeo's case being worse than Mia because he finds himself homeless after the death of his grandmother. Mia's mother has a nasty gambling problem that is so severe that Mia has to go without food and everything else a young girl her age needs to survive. With no other option, she is forced to steal in order to keep clothes on her back and food in her stomach. When an unfortunate event brings these two together, they realize that they need each other in more ways than one. A friendship that was only based on business has now flourished and turned personal. Together they turn into a force to be reckoned with beating down traps in order to survive. Murder is the man in the streets. He's handsome, charming and has more money than he can spend. Murder finds himself in a dying relationship with Trixie who doesn't care what he does as long as she can remain his main chick. When he run into Mia, he immediately falls for her not knowing the real reason behind their encounter.
