Editorial Review

Review

“A timely, desperately needed ‘how-to’ book that incorporates creativity and the development of autonomy. Teachers may lament the lack of time and the inability to nurture creativity due to the pressure of standardized testing results; the authors have effectively countered those perceived obstacles.”—Jan DeLisle, gifted and talented coordinator, Lovejoy Independent School District, Texas, and TAGT Executive Board of Directors

“What a great resource! [It] can be purchased over the weekend and utilized in your classroom Monday morning. . . . A fun and creative way to build stronger writing skills within your students.”—Jim Ryan, coordinator of Gifted Services, Barberton City Schools

“Provide[s] teachers with the tools to personalize writing for their students in a way that builds confidence, engages thoughtful reflection, and results in written products that capture the inward feelings and personal experiences of young authors.”—Gifted Child Today

“Building Strong Writers in Middle School is a strong resource for use at the middle level . . . it offers many practical strategies and helpful tools that teachers can readily use.”—Michael Postma, coordinator of High Potential Services and The Minnetonka Navigator Program, Minnetonka Public Schools, Minnesota

“This Common Core Standards aligned book is filled with ideas to stretch the minds of middle schoolers who will get to know themselves better as they also expand their imaginations through ingenious writing activities.”—Marcia DiJiosia, director of Advanced Studies, Gifted and Talented Education (GATE), San Diego Unified School District
