Engage (The Engage Series Book 1) By Evelyn Harper

Two stories. One unforgettable message about finding love.

Amanda & Mathis

Just like that, he was gone.

Amanda Taylor knows that young love doesn't always have a happy ending.

One summer in her teens, Amanda met and fell for Mathis Côté. Every moment they spent together was an exhilarating and beautiful dream. Love never felt so real. But as the summer ended, so did their time together. Mathis left with no explanation or reason and never spoke to her again.

Now, many years later, Amanda has grown past their brief time together, certain that she will never see Mathis again. However, when Amanda's uncle dies, she is left an inheritance with a catch: Mathis Côté must be the one who trains her to take over her uncle's wealth.

The new Mathis has become cold and distant. His years apart from Amanda have changed him into an arrogant wealthy man with an endless stream of women fighting for his attention.

Even though Amanda has contained her feelings from the past, she can't help but try to find out about the man Mathis has become. As she slowly unravels the mystery behind his past, she uncovers a secret that may put both of their lives in danger.

Jennifer & Philip

When Jennifer looks in the mirror, she can barely recognize herself. An abusive relationship transformed a woman with a promising future into a lonely broken soul. For the past three years she has tried desperately to forget her pain, but her wounds still haunt her. She has learned to never give her heart away.

Now, as Jennifer struggles to piece her life back together, she meets one man who could change everything.

Philip Haas is a self-made man who always gets what he wants. He's the epitome of wealth, power, and sex. Despite his incredible wealth and seductive personality, his life has not been as easy as it appears.

When they share a night of passion, more questions than answers arise. Does Philip truly care for her, or is he just using her body?

Just when it seems like the answers are in sight, Philip's past resurfaces to threaten their relationship. Will he overcome his past for Jennifer or will it tear them apart?

This is volume one of a three part mature new adult romance series (readers 18+).

Previously released separately as Cause and Fall into Him.
