Editorial Review

Review

The latest in the batch of Moon Handbooks releases proves again that Moon is one of the finest travel series around. What sets Moon apart from most guidebooks is the attention to detail, and more importantly, a respect for the topic.

From the Author

Sadly, the 8th edition of Moon Handbooks South Pacific was the last of the series. Changing travel patterns and the many new ways travelers have of obtaining information made producing a 9th edition economically untenable. After the 8th edition was published in 2004, I did produce new editions of Moon Fiji and Moon Tahiti, and much of the text on the other 13 destinations covered in the handbook is available on my website southpacific.org. Although the 8th edition is officially out of print, you'll find that the used copies sold here are quite a bargain, offering 119 maps, 31 charts, and 1,091 pages of information. Feel free to drop me a line through my website if you'd like to get in touch. - David Stanley, Vancouver Island, Canada

From the Back Cover

Widely traveled author David Stanley knows the best ways to explore this expanse of volcanic islands and coral reefs. High firsthand experience and honest insight will show you the difference between visiting the South Pacific and knowing it.
