Editorial Review

From the Inside Flap

REBEL AND SUPERSTAR

Her story reads like a fairy tale. Shania Twain rose from grinding poverty in northern Ontario to international superstardom as a country singer. But her seemingly overnight success was hard-earned, a result of her unique blend of country with a driving rock beat, her tireless devotion to her fans, and her winning combination of innocence and sultry sexiness. Here is the story of her phenomenal ascent to the top of the charts. From the dues she paid as a teenager, singing on local stages and television shows, to her mature and polished performances in music videos directed by Hollywood's Sean Penn and John Derek, Shania Twain: On My Way tracks each step of her rule-breaking, record-shattering career. Controversial, ambitious, down-to-earth: Here is Shania.
